LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

AUGUST 2: SOUTHERN TIER LEADERSHIP SUMMIT, St. Bonaventure University, 8 a.m. to 3:15 p.m. One day. Thirteen speakers. Unlimited networking opportunities! Leadership Cattaraugus and Leadership Allegany are pleased to announce the speakers for this year's Southern Tier Leadership Summit on Thursday, Aug. 2, at St. Bonaventure University.

Each August, they bring together emerging leaders from across the region to share new strategies that will help them become more effective leaders.

The 2018 keynote speaker will be Pamela Witter, a nationally-published author, higher education administrator, and small business owner. Her address is titled "A Metamorphoses: Emerging into Executive Leadership. Setting Forward on Your Journey to Your Personal Best." This year's keynote speaker emerged into leadership through a long and deliberate journey characterized by humble beginnings and intense effort. She will share her experience and key lessons learned along the way.

The daylong conference includes the keynote address, continental breakfast and lunch, and a selection of three leadership sessions of your choosing. The cost is $60. This year's breakout session topics include Work-Life Balance, Becoming a Managerial Superhero, Feedback & Leadership, Transformational Leadership, Participants to Passengers, Navigating the Generational Divide, Understanding Privilege, and Developing Team Creativity.

New this year is the option to purchase a ticket to attend the keynote address only. The cost for that option is $30. Questions? Email LC.
