NEXT CyberNews out THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 2018

AUGUST 24: PUBLIC OPEN HOUSE / SPECIAL 100 YEARS IN BUSINESS CEREMONY, Henry H. Hill, 1208 West State Street, Olean, 12 to 4 p.m. with 1:30 p.m. rededication.

In the year 1918, Henry Hixon Hill started the company, Henry H. Hill out of his house on Main Street in Olean, NY. His main focus was on repairing magnetos used for the primary ignition system in the oil well industry. Fast forward 100 years, and the company switched gears slightly and is now the largest Axalta paint distributor and hydraulic/industrial hose shop in the Southern Tier.

Donald and Tom Derx (father and son) have been operating and owning the business since 1972. Tom came to the GOACC office last year and asked if his family business could be recognized as one of the Santa Claus Lane ornament in honor of their 100th years in business. GOACC said yes, what a great idea!

This Friday, August 24th, Henry H. Hill will have a public open house from Noon to 4 p.m., with a special ribbon cutting and rededication of the business at 1:30 p.m. as well as an unveiling of the ornament. Dignitaries from Congressman Thomas Reed, Senator Catharine Young, and City of Olean's offices will be at the ceremony with proclamations from their respective offices.
