GOACC member businesses/organizations are encouraged to send GOACC their business/organization events and activities to be listed in the cybernews. Pop-Up Shops are taking over the retail world and rethinking traditional brick-and-mortar and big-box stores, but what exactly is a shop that pops up?

Pop-Up Shops are temporary retail spaces that sell merchandise of any kind. That's right, just about every consumer product has been sold via a Pop-Up Shop at one point in time. From art to fashion to tech gadgets and food, Pop-Up Shops are exciting because they create short-term stores that are just about as creative as they are engaging. And they come in all shapes and sizes.
