800R East State Street • Olean
Wednesday, August 24th • 5 - 7 PM

AUGUST 23, 30 — FRESH GRILLING, Miller's Farm Market, 6 to 7 p.m. Join every Tuesday night in August as they show you how to turn farm fresh fruits and veggies into unique dishes using just your grill. Recipe cards will be at every class.

AUGUST 24 — WALKING TOUR of AFRICAN AMERICAN HISTORY in OLEAN, meet in front of the Olean Public Library, 6 p.m. In case of rain, we will meet on August 25th instead.

Della Moore will be the guide on this walking tour, which is just over 2 miles long. The tour will take us through a small section of Olean's African American History; it will touch on the Underground Railroad as well as places and people who have played a huge part in the growth of our fair city by being role models and citizens the whole area can be proud of.

The tour will include: Laurens and North Union Street (where runaway slave, Sarah Johnson, was first "discovered"); Olean House, Russell's Inn, Allegheny River, Mount View Cemetery, House of Kathryn Kenny, Bethel AME Church, Sarah Johnson's House, Oak Hill Park, and Olean Bartlett Center. You will return to the library and enjoy some light refreshments after the outing.

AUGUST 24, 31 and SEPTEMBER 7 — CHARCOAL PORTRAITS MASTER CLASS, CCAC, 100 W. Main St., Allegany, 6 to 8 p.m. Explore different drawing techniques to create a portrait using charcoal pencils and/or vine charcoal. Please bring a high quality, black and white, 8x10 photo of a single person to use as your model. All supplies are included in the price of $80 for members, $90 for non-members. Call CCAC to register and pre-pay for the class (716-372-7455) or register and pay online at <http://www.myartscouncil.net/adult-classes.html>.

AUGUST 27 – MAGNIFICENT MUSHROOMS, Pfeiffer Nature Center, 1974 Lillibridge Road, Portville, 10 a.m. – Noon. Mushrooms are a variety of fungi that produce a fleshy fruiting body and when most of us think of a mushroom, we picture a white, umbrella-shaped cap that rests precariously on a thick, grey stalk. Mushrooms, however, come in many different shapes, sizes and colors. Not only are they beautiful to observe, they play a fundamental role for life on earth. Garrett Taylor, mushroom enthusiast and fun-guy, will be leading us on a hike through the woods of the Lillibridge Preserve to share interesting tidbits about the many different species of fungus that we have among us. Fee: $10 for non-members, $5 members, children under 13 are free. An adult must accompany minors. Sign up by 4pm, Thursday, August 25th, 2016 on the Programs Calendar on our website at www.pfeiffernaturecenter.org or contact the office at 716-933-0187.

SEPTEMBER 3 — 2016 OLEAN SEABIRDS SESSIONS

Strokes and Maneuvers Refinement, 11am-1pm
Can you paddle forward, backward and make your boat ‘slip’ sideways? Do you edge your boat while you are paddling? Can you turn your boat using a bow rudder? If you answered no to any of these, join us for this course to help you improve your paddling skills.

Kayak Safety and Rescue*, 2pm-4pm
Do you kayak alone? Are you able to get back into your boat unassisted? Do you paddle with friends? Have you practiced rescuing each other? Do you know how to swim with your boat in the event you aren’t able to ‘self rescue’? If you answered no to any of the questions then this is a course for you!
*This course is designed for people with basic paddling skills, i.e. can paddle forward, backward and side-to-side.
