NEW WAY TO PAY DUES

The Greater Olean Area Chamber of Commerce now offers an automated ACH payment plan for your membership dues.

Under this optional plan, you can elect to have your membership dues automatically deducted from your account on a monthly basis. When members switch to this option, GOACC will waive the first month payment for your dues (one-time only).

Member changes to plans must be made in writing at least 30 days prior to the effective date of requested change. The Chamber may adjust the payment on an annual basis with a written notice to members. A $20 service charge will be billed for insufficient funds.

Zonta Club pitches in for fight against breast cancer

The Zonta Club of Olean held their Bingo for Breast Cancer in October. The event had 250 participants and raised over $6,000. This money will be distributed locally to those in our area battling breast cancer and to continue raising awareness of this life threatening disease.
