Leadership Cattaraugus holds Agri-business Day

Members of the 2017 Leadership Cattaraugus class gathered July 18 for the group's latest program day, focusing on agri-business.

The group started the day at Jamestown Community College's Olean campus for an informative session featuring Brian Davis with the Cattaraugus County Soil Conservation Department, Kim LaMendola with Southern Tier West, Jim Finch of Eco Valley Farm, and Sister Melissa Scholl of Canticle Farm. Each speaker discussed the role their organization plays in the area's agriculture sector and the challenges they face. They also touched on different attributes they use as leaders to meet the challenges faced by their respective organizations.
