FAMILY FOUR PACK: Greater Olean Area Chamber of Commerce is selling a Family Four Pack for the holidays for a donation of a toy valued at $10 or more. The four pack includes four sets of holiday bulb necklaces and four holiday squirrel mask gaiters. "We had purchased them for the participants in the parade this year – lit necklaces and gaiters for visibility as well as social distancing," reported Meme K. Yanetsko, GOACC COO. "We thought it would be a great idea to 'sell' these four packs for a donation of a toy for our local Toys for Tots." For more details...

HOLIDAYS IN A GLASS: The Greater Olean Area Chamber of Commerce's Holidays in a Glass Contest will be starting on Wednesday November 25th to Sunday December 6th. The contest will be a friendly competition between our well-known local cafes, bars, and restaurants to encourage the Olean area residents and visitors to drink local and treat themselves to a much-needed cup of cheer!

Entries could warm even the grinch's cold heart and are ready to be served! The contest is made up of seven locations, each with a signature holiday themed drink that will be judged on how many they sell to the community. The business with the most drinks sold will win a trophy, bragging rights until next year, and GOACC will be donating $200 to Toys for Tots in the winner's name. For more details...

TWELVE DAYS OF DEALS: Holiday shopping will look a little different this year which is why The Greater Olean Area Chamber of Commerce presents their December Deals Series which will include the Twelve Days of Deals from GOACC and the 12 Days of Deals. This series was created to help local businesses thrive throughout the month of December while encouraging our community to shop local this season. For more details...
