NEXT CyberNews out Monday, July 10, 2017

JUNE 29: ROBERT TAYLOR to be honored at the Library, Olean Public Library, 7 p.m. Taylor passed away recently after many years of service as community arts coordinator. The event, which is free and open to the public, is being co-sponsored by the library and a group of close friends who informally wish to share in some personal remembrances. In the spirit of the occasion anybody from the general audience who wishes to participate will be warmly welcomed.

Taylor's status both as a personal friend and a community arts coordinator go far beyond any job description. His loss will be felt by many for a very long time. The evening will include a reading of some of Taylor's own poetry, and a display of his work in bonsai and origami. The Friends of the Library will be providing refreshments.

For those who wish further information, or to offer some music for the evening, please call 716-557-2518.
