Siena College Survey

Intro.

Thank you for participating in the 14th Annual State New York Business Leaders Survey, conducted by The Siena College Research Institute (SCRI) in partnership with The Business Council of New York State, Inc., and with the support from the Western Governors University.

For over ten years, SCRI has gathered data that measures economic indicators across the state and for specific regions. Using this data, SCRI has constructed the Business Leaders Index. This index, and the survey as a whole, have been valuable resources for chambers across New York State.

Please enter the seven digit coding number found on your email invitation or in the body of the letter of your mailed survey and click the right arrow button to begin the survey and participate in the valuable study.
